

cQuick Post: Delta Variant in Minnesota

The COVID-19 Delta variant is in Minnesota, bringing with it a 23% hospitalization rate. At this point in the pandemic, the overwhelming number of people experiencing serious COVID-19 illness are unvaccinated.

Vaccination reduces overall transmission, as well as the chances for virus mutations and new variants. If you are not yet vaccinated, please help in the fight against COVID-19 and schedule your appointment today: